Celebrate the Women of Dripping Springs
Who Lead, Lift & Inspire Our Community

When women are celebrated, something powerful happens—confidence rises, connections deepen, and entire communities feel the ripple. The Women of Worth (WOW) Awards is more than a luncheon... it's a bold, joy-filled spotlight on the women who lead, lift, and light up Dripping Springs in ways both seen and unseen.

From trailblazing business owners to the quiet forces of kindness behind the scenes, this is where stories are honored, impact is amplified, and magic is made visible. As a sponsor, you're not just supporting an event—you're stepping into a movement that says, clearly and unapologetically: she matters.

Take a look at the sponsorship opportunities—there's a meaningful way for every organization and company to be part of the WOW.
